GEN. PATTERSON's ORDERS.
Gen. Patterson's orders were, we learn from one who has seen them, all decided and definitive. He was to stack Johnston, if strong chough; if not, to cut him off from Beaure gard, to worry him at any rate, and, if our generaled, to reinforce Gen. McDowell here.

more. They have seemed to rely upon a strong military force to save them from small bands of marsuders, for whose arrest their own police system should have been all sufficient. This is too expensive. It scatters and withdraws from more important fields of operation large bodies of our troops now especially needed elsewhere in the State. Gen. Pope therefore preposes to throw them on their own resultances. Like a boy learning to swim,

Mr. STEVENS, (Kep.,) of Pennsylvania, thought in times like three the laws of war were to govern their settos. The Washington correspondent of The Baltimore Sam says that the Fresident will arge an advance to Richmond at the earliest possible moment—that the campaign will be in Eastern Virginia, and that Gen. McClellan will have all means and power he may require for offensive operations.

The appropriations thus far made by Congress, amount to shout $340,000,000.

The Secretary of War has saked for 30,000,000 more, on account of volunteers now being matered into service. A bill for that purpose will probably be passed to-morrow. It appears by an examination of the two Volunteer bills, that one being supplemental to the other, the Fresident has power to call 1,000,000 men into the field, although that extent of authority was not, it is believed, designed. It is not thought, therefore, that more than 500,

Mr. PORTER, of Indians, from the Judicia-gr Committee, reported the Senate bill pro-viding for holding district and circuit courts of the United States during the temporary ab-sence or inability of the judges. Passed.

The House took up the Senate bill stelling $1 per month to the pay of non-commissioned effects, musicians, volunteers, marines, acc-ment and ordinary senates.

The execution of private Wm. Murray, of Company F, 2d New Hampshire Regiment, for the marder of Mary Butier, on Saturday last, took place at 4 e/cole this alterance. In order that his fate might be a warning to allevil disposed soldiers, the scaffold was erected upon the walls of Fort Eleworth, effording an unobstructed view to all.

All the regiments encomped in the vicinity of alexandria were present, and not vithstanding 20,000 persons witnessed the execution, everything passed off without unnecessary excitement. The culprit ascended the scaffold with a steady gait. He made no allusion to his guilt, but called upox his friends to sustain his family in their hour of trial. Private Keeth, of Company E, 17th New York Regiment, stationed in Fort Elisworth, was shot dead on Wednesday evening by Capt. Hore, of the same regiment. He was riot-ope, and committed an assault and battery on the Captain.

Harve's Correspondence with the here's all Submitted to the President.

I have had the pleasure, within the last few days, of perusing a letter, now in the hands of a distinguished Republican member of Congress, which is a full and ample vindication of Harvey's same and fame. Not a single discatch passed between him and Judge Magratis which had not been perused by the President, and which were not known to has advisors. Nor was there anything in the tenor of those dispatches which the Administration head be ashamed of They all pertained to the much discussed question of evacuating Fort Sannier. The plan, which it was at one time aliment determined to adopt, fell through because of the South Carolina demand that Auderson and his forces should capitulate. This proposition, of course, was not entertained, and then the at tack was made. The road is now a part of history. The communication which I saw and trad is a copy of one sent to a member of the Catinet, but it is a more recapitulation of the facts and deeds which filled up the last few days before the fall of Sumer and the breaking out of healthittes. Every impartial man will hold Mr. Harvey, when all these facts are known, free irom every laint of the crime so ruthlessiy charged upon him by a portion of the press.—Cor. Futiouryh Gassich.
